

CV for the Minister for Foreign Affairs

Martin Lidegaard, born December 12, 1966, son of author Mads Lidegaard and journalist and author Else Lidegaard. He has a daughter, Barbara, born in 2002.

Member Period

Member of Parliament for the Social Liberal Party in Roskilde County constituency February 2nd 2005 - November 13th 2007 and in Western Copenhagen constituency November 20th 2001 - February 8th 2005.
Candidate for the Social Liberal Party in Roskilde nomination district 2003-2007, and in Vesterbro nomination district 2000-2002.

Parliamentary career

Minister for Foreign Affairs from February 3rd 2014.
Minister for Climate, Energy and Buildings from October 3rd 2011 to February 3rd 2014.

Education and jobs

MA (Communication), Roskilde University Centre 1987-1993.
Matriculated from Helsingør County Upper Secondary School 1982-1985.
Humblebæk Municipal School 1973-1982.

Communications consultant, RelationPeople 2008-2011.
Co-founder and chairman of the think tank CONCITO 2008-2011.
Information officer and deputy secretary general of the Danish Association for International Cooperation 1996-2001.
Information officer and manager with the Municipalities' Mutual Insurance Company 1993-1996.
Freelance consultant for the International Forum of the Labour Movement 1992-1993.
Editor of 'RUCNyt' (RUC News) 1988-1992.
Employed at a Danish Red Cross Asylum Centre 1986-1987.
Bank assistant, Bikuben 1985.